The Sanibel Art Colony's digital exhibition, "There's Calm In Your Eye: Art Inspired by the Impact of Hurricane Ian on Southwest Florida," is available on its website from now through Nov. 27. Comprised of 86 pieces from 47 artists, it aims to foster an inclusive, healing and thought-provoking conversation. The exhibit captures some of the moments Southwest Florida been living through post-Ian and reflects the creative response of artists to their personal storm-related encounters.
